

Memories

Most of our lives
we go without thinking about how many memories we remember.
Sometimes they are sweet, other times they may hit us hard! No matter what time it is,
they freely run through our minds.
From your childhood to your first heartbreak,
they insist on sticking around.
So, never forget the good memories, just cherish them.